

Hello handsome

That was quick!

Yea

What are you doing right now?

How is life treating you David ?

Well, I am hoping for a new life very soon. God willing.

Nothing much just sitting on the couch watching tv

That's good to know

So what do you have in mind for the future?

Sometime we do video chat.

Yes sometime we can do video chat

At the moment I'm at work. I'm on night shift. What work do you do?

I am assistant home care

So you are on call? Or work shifts.

I wonder what you look like?

No i am not on call

You are very beautiful.

Sorry I was escorting cleaners.

Okay, thanks for the compliment dear

One good turn deserves another. What did I say earlier?

Soory, what did you say? I told you I don't get many compliments that's for certain.

I don't get you handsome

Well it is true. And to be honest, I am actually quite wary of women. Keep in mind my history. And I get fed up with those who keep asking for money as well.

That's me now..

Nice picture of you

Thanks...

You always welcome handsome

At least you are not asking for money.

Not sure how much of my story I told you.

Are you there still?

Yes i'm here with you now handsome one !

Welcome back!

David please can i ask you a question !

Go ahead!

What are your views towards handling money?I think that both should share in how to best handle the money.

Well, I am pragmatic here. I just want someone who is realistic and sensible. Someone who shares and lives within their means. Decisions should be taken together. Living expences should be shared. I don't want to be pressurised into running up debts or doing anything outside our means. I say this as someone who just went through ten years of abuse (including financial abuse) and don't want to repeat the experience. The ex-wife left thousands of pounds of debt in my name and I am thinking of taking her to court over it. And remember this is not a cheap country to live in.

Yes i know that handsome

There is one other lady over there who keeps trying to demand money; I am going to block her. It is a sad fact that there many out there who prey on the loneliness and misfortune of others.

Oh yes you are right about handsome

David If you and I were a couple and we have a disagreement, how would you handle it? Unresolved and act like nothing happened?

Well I would answer it like this: With some people, resolution is impossible. They are bent on getting their own way no matter what. My ex was like that; I am adamant that I do not end up with such a person again. When you talk about a disagreement, are you refering to money or do you mean in more general terms?

No, that is what i mean !

David how many girlfriends after you being through with your Ex?

I would say that for the most part, I am quite open minded and middle of the road.

When as a couple we fight I expect to work the problems out, usually by talking, from my past I found if you let things go unresolved they never go away ... so i will talk to you and will understand you and make sure we understand each other.

Nobody since. For one thing, for a very long time my confidence was so damaged that I dismissed any thought of being with anyone again. If anyone suggested it to me, I got them off the subject very quickly.

I have never and ever dated anyone else, since I got hurt from my ex boyfriend till a friend of mine Introduced me to this online dating series and I'm here right now..He had find the right man for his Heart and they are happily married for some years back now..They spend everything together as One, i have been seeing them sometimes by the road side enjoying their life together....

Now that last statement makes me happy. My ex never wanted to resolve anything. She was bent on getting her own way no matter what the consequences. For example, social services came in during 2012. As I reported that she had been violent. And referral is made by law if their are children in the home. They offered to get marriage guidance in. She refused even to open the door to them. So you see what I mean? The only way to 'resolve' anything with her was to end the marriage. And then it was a bitter struggle to get rid of her.

Indeed I am currently writing a book about what I went through... <http://cotexfood-trading.com/when-the-nightmare-came.html>

I hope to publish in the new year.

I only had a very few girlfriends anyhow.

When was the last time you had sex? Are you what Americans call a freak in bed?

About a year before my marriage broke up. It was becoming rarer and rarer as she had damaged my confidence. The consequences of which are obvious. I would probably be quite shy at first.

David my eyes are getting lazy and i feel like to sleep

I'm going to bed, i will like to talk to you tomorrow

Ok then my dear. It's 3:30am here; I have four more hours at work and it'll be five before I get to sleep. Spare a thought. Goodnight! X

Good night x x x x

By the way, are you sure you are i the USA?

Please just tell me you really love me. That's all I need. I David

Hello handsome

How is your day going ? I hope everything going well with you out there as i'm having here Big problems here.

How was your day?

Hello handsome, what is wrong ?

Having a shit day.

Seriously I am giving up on women to be honest.

David I really loves you and i just want you to know that am not here to play games okay

The problem is others have said that. And then demands for money start to come in. You see why I find it hard to trust anyone? Expecially after what happened to me before?

I understand your situation David but you have to know that all woman are not the same

Well someone has got to proove that. Toime is fast running out.

David Trust me am not a bad person okay

I do respect my self and i promise you am not going to hurt you when we are together okay

I mean, asking how I would manage money in a relationship is one thing, but being presurised to send money to someone I have not even met in person is quite another.

You know we will need trust to love, but first you need to love in orderto trust to love someone is to understand each other, to laugh together, to smile with your heart and to trust one another

Did you know that my ex wife almost made me take my own life? I don't think I told you already.

No you dont tell me anything about your Ex wife David

I don't think you really want to know.

I hope when i come u will tell me any story about your wife

Well, as a matter of fact I am writing a book about what has been done to me. See

<http://www.cotexfood-trading.com/when-the-nightmare-came.html>

I am not making anything up.

Honey u dont worry lets see about how we can build this relationship okay

It is now that time of year once again when it is dark by 4pm, I get home to a place which is cold, dark, empty and silent. It feels like walking into a tomb. I check the post, its nothing but bills. Nobody else writes to me. Nothing but cold empty silence answers my tears. In the past, the children were there, not any more. I once thought that when I was married I would be happy. But the marriage just briught a new kind of loneliness, and abuse to go with it. That is the truth about how my life. I see others in the street, all happy, not me. On new years' eve 2011, I remember the walk home from work, seeing others bringing their food and beer, ready to see in the new year. And how was my new year? I ended up spending it in Accident and Emergency. You know now why I am such a stranger to happiness.

Aww am sorry to hear that and you are making me crying

To me 2012 is the year I will always remember for the new year I spent in accident and emergency and the incident in november which brought in social services.

Baby stop saying that u are making me crying David

It is all very true though.

Yes I trust you David and I know all u are saying is true

After all that moving on is very hard. September 14th last year she tried to get me locked up because she wanted the flat for herseof after she realised I was serious. I wanated her out of my life.

Honey just forget your past and lest talk about how we can meet

Honey just forget your past and lets talk about how we can meet together okay

I wish it was so simple. Seriously. Never underestimate how that whole experience has left me scarred.

Love is like a wonderful feeling of compassion and satisfaction. It should be given respect and trust; and it should receive that love back.The best proof of love is trust.

It's not going to be easy for me. In ten years, there have been just three others interested in me. My ex wife (enough said), that 60+ sex pest in the hospital where I used to work who constantly harasses younger men, and one young girl who turned out to be a heroin addict. That doesn't exactly fill me with confidence.

Are you still there? Sorry had to do rotation. So, what do you suggest?

Yes am here for you my love

Just thinking.

Honey so tell me are you serious to find someone to spend all your life with?

If I can manage to find someone I can trust and confide in. Someone able to offer true happiness. Someone who won't bring me more of the same. Someone who will be by my side, in sickness and in health. Someone who shares my life with me instead of exploiting me. Are you that elusive person I seek?

Yes

I want someone warm, Caring and trusting. One that we both can have a lot of admiration for one another and lots of fun and love and understanding..

Good. So, where can we start?

Someone to love and who loves me, honesty, integrity, maturity, shared interests, being there for the other person..

Just what I seek too.

Do you smoke cigarettes or drink alcohol or do drugs?

I drink socially, I have never smoked, I don't do drugs.

No, I don't smoke, I drink once in a great while(Social Drinker)but not alcoholic drinks and no I don't do drugs..

What impression do you get of me? Just be honest thst's all.

Honey am honest with you

You want to visit me?

Yes if you are ready for me why not

Are you there with me?

Yes.

When would you like to come?

For now i cant decide unless unless u decide David

I'm just thinking.

Ok

You know we need trust to love at the first place David

Where did you say you live?

Casper, Wyoming

What time is it there?

7:12 PM here

It's 2:13 here.

Oh i see

So baby what are you doing now us am talking with you?

Just had to deal with one of the cleaners.Who set a door alarm off.

So David tell me are you serious about this relationship?

Yes of course. So long as you are!

Am really serious about you because nobody knows whats going to happen future

I just want a future worth having you know.

But can I ask you something?

Yes u can ask me

Relationships are based on honesty and trust right?

That's how I feel anyhow.

Honey u know that you cant love someone without trust

You are in Casper Wyoming?

Yes

Then can you please explain how comes your IP address is owned by Vodaphone Ghana?

If you are in Wyoming, how can Vodaphone Ghana be your internet service provider? Can you explain that to me please?

Honey i dont understand what u saying

Honey i was just using a friends laptop and i dont really no what u talking about

Well, do you know what IP addresses are? Internet connected devices have a number which is unique - rather like each phone in the world has a unique number, including the national and local code. Well I just ran a whois lookup on yours 41.218.215.135.
